

Federal Law Enforcement & Protective Services

Prerequisite: Principles of Law, Public Safety, Corrections & Security

Course: 945OCT

Credits: 1

Length: 18 weeks

Placement: 9-12

Course Description

Federal Law Enforcement and Protective Services provides the knowledge and skills necessary to prepare for certification in security services for federal law enforcement and protective services. The course provides an overview of security elements and types of organizations with a focus on security measures used to protect lives, property, and proprietary information, to ensure computer security, to provide information assurance, and to prevent cybercrime.

Student Activities

Students will investigate crime trends, FBI uniformed crime report statistics, and state crime statistics to determine a proper use of law enforcement resources. Students will also research mental health and its role in criminal activity. Students work individually in teams, exploring key topics in greater depth and making presentations to the class. There will be an emphasis on developing analytical proficiency, along with research, writing, and verbal skills.
