

Human Growth & Development

Prerequisite: Either intro level Education courses

Course: 1537CT

Credits: 1

Length: 18 weeks

Placement: 10-12

Course Description

In this course, students will study an examination of human development across the lifespan with an emphasis on research, theoretical perspectives, and common physical, cognitive, emotional and social development milestones.

Student Activities

The Education and Training career cluster equips students with:

- core academic skills
- employability skills
- job specific technical skills
- research skills
- real-world application

Certification

Early Childhood Education

Student Cost: $17.50 BBIA Cost: $17.50

If seeking certification, curriculum cannot be modified.