

Law, Public Safety, Corrections & Security Certifications

Name	Course	Provider	Cost
IS-317 (Community Emergency Response Team)	LPSCS	Federal Emergency Management Agency	Student pays: $0 BBIA Pays: $0
Students must successfully complete a 40 question exam covering topics including CERT organization, fire safety, Hazardous material, Terrorist Incidents, Disaster Medical Operations &amp; Search and Rescue. The test is given during class and there are no age restrictions. In order to earn the certification, students must pass the exam with a 75% or better.
IS-200.B Introduction to Incident Command System	Law Enforcement I	Federal Emergency Management Agency	Student pays: $0 BBIA Pays: $0
Students must successfully complete a 40 question exam covering topics including the role of law enforcement officers during an emergency incident, the history of the Incident Command System (ICS), features and principles of ICS, and organizational structure of the Incident Command System. The test is given during class and there are no age restrictions. In order to earn the certification, students must pass the exam with a 75% or better.
What Every First Responding Officer Should Know About DNA Evidence	Law Enforcement I	National Institute of Justice	Student pays: $0 BBIA Pays: $0
Students must complete all nine modules of a self-paced training course. The course is designed for first responding officers and is intended to provide interactive training that covers basic information about the identification, preservation and collection of DNA evidence at a crime scene. No exam required.
Law 101: Legal Guide for the Forensic Expert	Forensic Psychology	National Institute of Justice	Student pays: $0 BBIA Pays: $0
Students must complete all 13 modules of a self-paced training course. This course is designed to give a comprehensive discussion of recommended practices for the forensic expert to follow when preparing for and testifying in court. No exam required.
Communication Skills, Report Writing, and Courtroom Testimony	Forensic Psychology	National Institute of Justice	Student pays: $0 BBIA Pays: $0
Students must complete all three modules of a self-paced training course. Students will learn to choose the ideal modality for message delivery considering the purpose, location, and audience; effectively present technical information verbally; organize thoughts and create an extended outline before writing; and organize reports. Students will become familiar with courtroom structure and personnel within the court and basic courtroom procedures and protocols. No exam required.

Population Genetics and Statistics

Forensic Psychology

National Institute of Justice

Student pays: $0
BBIA Pays: $0

Students must complete all five modules of a self-paced training course. Students will learn Population Theory, the basic terms in population genetics, the importance and use of statistics and probability in the field of forensic science, and how to evaluate and utilize DNA population databases. No exam required.

Emergency Telecommunications/ Dispatching

Law Enforcement II

National Academy of Emergency Dispatch

Student pays: $15 each
BBIA Pays: $15 each

Students must be 18 years or older to take this certification test. The exam consists of 50 questions on 10 instructional components. For more information, visit <http://www.emergencydispatch.org/Certification>

Español for Law Enforcement

Law Enforcement II

National Institute of Justice

Student pays: $0
BBIA Pays: $0

Students must complete all five modules of a self-paced training course and complete a 174-question final exam covering Spanish use in law enforcement. The course is designed to help officers attain a working knowledge of the Spanish language and apply that knowledge to law enforcement situations. In order to earn the certification, students must pass the final exam with a 75% or better.

Crime Scene and DNA Basics

Criminal Investigation

National Institute of Justice

Student pays: $0
BBIA Pays: $0

Students must complete all four modules of a self-paced training course. Students will learn the importance of documenting, protecting, and preserving crime scenes, what types of evidence can be found there, and methods used for its collection and preservation. No exam required.

Cold Case Safety Net: Missing and Unidentified Persons

Criminal Investigation

National Institute of Justice

Student pays: $0
BBIA Pays: $0

Students must watch a one-hour expert lecture video. This video is designed to teach students how investigators handle long-term missing and unidentified decedent cases, while providing an efficient and effective four-step process to initially address all missing and unidentified cold cases uniformly. No exam required.

What Every Investigator and Crime Scene Technician Should Know About DNA Evidence

Criminal Investigation

National Institute of Justice

Student pays: $0
BBIA Pays: $0