AP Mandarin Chinese 4 華(华)huá 語(语)yǔ

2020 Spring Semester---Syllabus

Lei-Jane Chou 周 zhōu 麗(丽) lì 娟 juān

Course Information:

The AP Chinese IV language and culture course has been designed to prepare students for the AP Exam. The class is comprised of six thematic units and taught by using authentic material consisting of literary texts used in both listening and reading. Chinese rules will be revisited and used in contextualizing activities related to the units themes.

Throughout the semester a variety of methods, including summarize assessment will be implemented to check understanding. The course will be conducted exclusively in Chinese and students are encouraged to use the Chinese language in class. The course will try to be taught most of time in Chinese.

AP Chinese IV prepares students to demonstrate intermediate proficiency across the full range of language skills within a cultural frame of reference. The course will develop reading proficiency of authentic texts, fiction and non-fiction, listening proficiency of formal and colloquial authentic language, and writing proficiency in descriptive, expository, and persuasive styles. This course utilizes critical thinking, reading, and writing skills. The goal of this course is to prepare students to take the AP Chinese Language and Culture exam.

Dear Parent(s),

I am excited to have your child in Chinese IV class. The class will definitely be more challenging than Chinese III. My goal for this class is, upon the completion of the course, is for your child to not only communicate with Chinese people, but in addition, to exchange information. He/she will discuss some details when he/she travels to China. The class will be more exciting, vigorous, and more fun!

I believe a key for student's success is for parents and teachers to work together. Your support is absolutely a MUST for your child's success. In order to optimize your child's study, it is critical that we maintain an excellent learning environment in the classroom. Your child is expected to bring a positive attitude to the classroom and be ready to learn every day.

Please read and discuss our Chinese syllabus with your son or daughter. Please sign and return it. If you have any concerns, please feel free to contact me. The best way to reach me is via e-mail: lei-janechou@misdmail.org. Please provide an e-mail address that you check most frequently or if you prefer to talk with me in person, please include the best phone number.

I expect a great semester with your child. I will do my best and do whatever I can for your child's academic success. Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Lei-Jane Chou

Please check below if you agree. If you do NOT agree, please contact your child's counselor.

- My child and I have read the Syllabus (Spring 2020) for AP Chinese IV and have discussed its contents.
- My child is in the class to learn Chinese. My child will follow all the rules and instructions given by the instructor without any objection.
- My child and I understand that taking AP Chinese IV is voluntary. My child has a willingness to learn Chinese more than required in the Recommended Graduation Plan of the State of Texas.
- My child and I understand that the ultimate goal of the AP Chinese IV course is for the students to take the AP Chinese Test. This course will be very challenging and demanding than the previous courses.
It will be necessary for students to increase their study time.
- It is the student responsibility to study to maintain a passing grade for the Pre-AP Chinese III.
